Dear Parents,

We are happy to meet you through the 7th letter of the current academic year of our school.

1. EDITORIAL

“Earth provides enough to satisfy every man's needs, but not every man's greed.”
— Mahatma Gandhi

Mahatma Gandhi was a deep ecologist. He called for the limitations of wants so that man's stress on nature would be least possible. We have to rethink the ecology by exploring the totality of all interrelations between human societies with everything in its environment.

"Science it's like magic but real". Our tiny tots did the science experiment with handwash and water. They explored how the magic of hand wash keeps away germs.

“Brown says stability, reliability and approachability. It is the colour of our earth and is associated with all things natural or organic. It says natural, wholesome, comfortable and earthy”. Our tiny tots were dressed in Shades of brown and did creative and fun activities related to brown colour.

B. PRIMARY

Virtual teacher's day was organised by students of grade 9 for the teachers on 5th September, 2020 on the occasion of Teachers Day. The students of grades 6 to 9 enacted the educators, sang a song and a beautiful 'Thank you' card was prepared for the teachers as a gesture of appreciation. The teachers were grateful and expressed their good wishes and blessings to all the dear students of AISV.

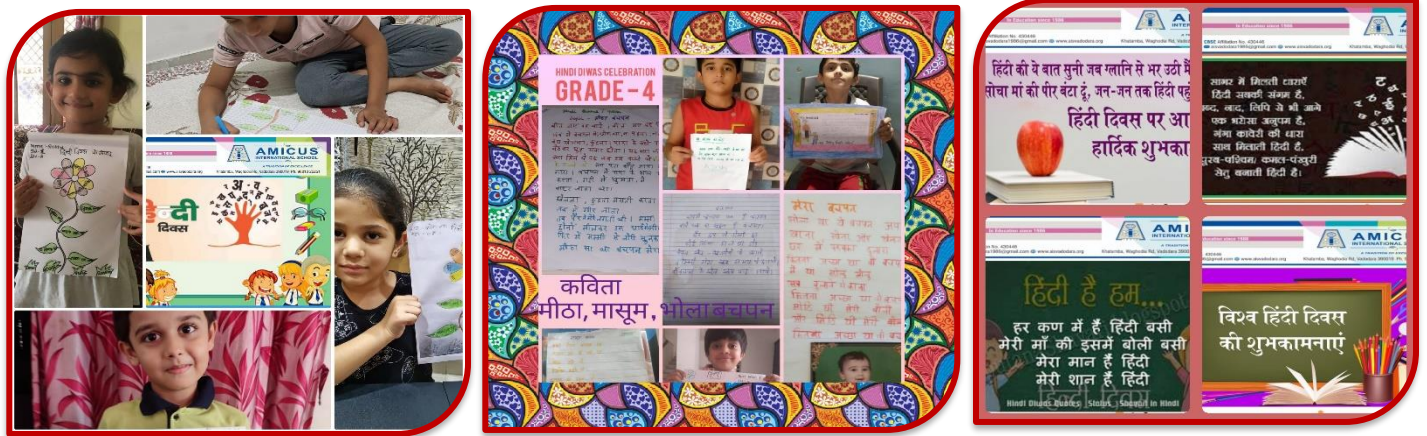

Grandchildren of grade1 to 9 celebrated virtual grandparents day with a purpose to honor grandparents and know how their role helps children become aware of the strength, information and guidance older people can offer. It gave the opportunity to both grandchild and grandparent to share a memorable incident with each other. As a token, to celebrate and make this day memorable, the grandchildren enjoyed making a collage of a family tree by colouring, painting and pasting pictures; few prepared cards wrote poems, enacted like their loved ones.
