Dear Dr. Abhiroop,

I had the occasion to visit the exhibition stall put up by the students of your school, on the 18th and 19th November 2022, on the occasion of CBSE National Annual Conference of Sahodaya School Complexes. The themes of Arts integrated learning and showcasing of best practices were very well portrayed in the stalls and passionately explained by the students manning them. It is heartening to note the emphasis placed by your school on innovative teaching and learning techniques and the enthusiastic embracing thereof by the students.

The large crowds at the exhibition stalls certainly made them, one of the key highlights of the conference. Please convey my appreciation to the students and their mentor teachers for organizing the wonderful exhibition.

I congratulate you for taking this initiative and hope that you will continue to work towards introducing new engaging ways of teaching students in your school.

Best wishes,
Your sincerely,

(Nidhi Chibber)
